It's That Most Wonderful Time of the Year...

'Tis the season car thieves go dashing through store and shopping center parking lots looking for vehicles full of newly purchased presents. To make sure your gifts wind up in the right hands — and that you have a sleigh to deliver them in — hide anything of value, lock your car, and take the keys.

